Paul Eagle, CEO

CONGRATULA-

On October 6, 1978, Paul Eagle put his 17 years of valuable experience in the research, management, and marketing of plastics products to work for him, and founded Golden Eagle Extrusions, Inc. Twenty-five years later, thanks to his vision, his belief of always staying one step ahead of the competition, and his conviction that customer service should be the backbone of any company, Golden Eagle continues to flourish as a corporation.

Humble beginnings and entrepreneurship go hand and hand, and no one knows that better than Paul, who started his company twenty five years ago, and began as an extremely small operation. Today, Golden Eagle resides in a new, state of the art facility, and has enjoyed strong growth every year of its existence. The 25 year journey of Golden Eagle Extrusions is a true success story, and it continues to thrive under Paul Eagle, who still serves as the company CEO.

FLEXIBLE PACKAGING SPECIALISTS

Golden Eagle excels at identifying innovations in flexible packaging, and applying them successfully to meet our customers needs. Our goal is to improve upon existing products by replacing them with superior materials. Our representatives focus not only on the packaging function of a facility, but also on the complexities of the particular industry. Paul believes this philosophy is essential in providing our customers' with superior packaging materials.

TEAMWORK

Paul has made it a priority that exceptional service be the foundation of Golden Eagle Extrusions. He realizes that our customers' business runs smoothly only if we commit ourselves to their success. Golden Eagle prides itself on providing the personal attention necessary to effectively solve packaging problems. Our outstanding representatives accomplish this by learning the specific requirements of our customers' packaging operation, assuring on time deliveries, and searching out innovative products to better serve the customer. We realize that our reputation relies on fulfilling our commitments to our customers, and this is our top priority.

A sincere "CONGRATULATIONS" is in order to Paul Eagle and all the employees of Golden Eagle Extrusions, for turning Paul's dream of Golden Eagle into a 25 year reality. In a day and age when most new companies do not make it through their first year, Golden Eagle continues to enjoy growth and stability. This is a direct reflection upon Paul Eagle, his team of dedicated employees, and all the wonderful customers whom we have been privileged enough to serve throughout our companies tenure.

1 Going Strong

Hats Off To The Golden Eagle Management Team!!!

I am very proud of each person in our company. They are the company, and represent our values and high standards in customer relationships. Joan and I are lucky to have a company of family (Dave and Jenny) and friends: Missy, Tami, Chad, Tim, Pat, Andy, Ron D., Jim, and Ron L. We grew because we treat each other and our customers, as friends who deserve our respect. Our employee loyalty has been proven by very low turnover. Golden Eagle employees possess an average of 12 years tenure with the organization.

Thank you all for 25 years of fun, growth, and memories. I personally wish that future generations of Golden Eagle Management come from our team.

Sincerely, Paul Eagle

Golden Eagle employees enjoyed another successful summer gathering at our annual company picnic. The location of the picnic was Paul & Joan Eagle's cabin in Ripley, Ohio. It is located on the Ohio River and is the perfect backdrop for a company get together. This year, the employees enjoyed wonderful food, exciting games, and of course, good company! A special THANKS is extended to Jenny Duncan, who always works so hard making our company events a success!
